Turner Sports and CBS Sports to Provide Exclusive, In-Depth Access to Auburn, Clemson, Loyola-Chicago, Nevada, Ohio State, Rhode Island and Tennessee

CBS Sports and Turner Sports’ joint coverage of the 2018 NCAA Division I Men’s Basketball Championship will include the return of NCAA March Madness Confidential, providing exclusive, behind-the-scenes access to seven NCAA Tournament teams. This year’s Confidential series features Auburn, Clemson, Loyola-Chicago, Nevada, Ohio State, Rhode Island and Tennessee.

Production crews have been embedded with the teams beginning with Selection Sunday and will chronicle their NCAA Tournament journeys. Throughout the Tournament, features will air during studio coverage across TBS, CBS, TNT and truTV, as well as on the official @MarchMadness Twitter and Facebook pages, @MarchMadnessTV, NCAA.com and Turner Sports and CBS Sports social media accounts.

A special documentary titled “10 Years of March Madness Confidential,” highlighting the best moments from the series over the past decade, will air on CBS on Sunday, March 25, from Noon-1 p.m. ET.

For the eighth consecutive year, CBS Sports and Turner Sports will provide live coverage of all 67 games from the 2018 NCAA Division I Men’s Basketball Championship across four national television networks – TBS, CBS, TNT and truTV – and NCAA March Madness Live. This year’s tournament will tip off with the NCAA First Four™ on truTV presented by Northwestern Mutual, tomorrow, Tuesday, March 13, and Wednesday, March 14, at 6 p.m. on both days. This year’s NCAA Final Four National Semifinals on Saturday, March 31, along with the National Championship on Monday, April 2, will be televised by TBS.
